

2, Ormefield House Colwyn Road, Llandudno, LL30 3AA
£1,495 Per Month

This fabulous sea front, three bedroom apartment occupies an idyllic coastal location, standing on the North Promenade looking over Llandudno Bay towards the Great Orme. The views from the property are truly breathtaking. The property itself adjoins the beach with direct access. Situated on the lower slopes of the Little Orme at Craigside the property is the centre part of a vast period building which has been purposely concerted into three separate apartments. The property has been sympathetically modernised throughout whilst still retaining the charm and original character features. The interior boasts bright and spacious rooms with high ceilings and in brief comprises; entrance vestibule, reception hall, living room with feature turret seating area, dining room, well equipped kitchen with integrated appliances, three bedrooms, bathroom and separate shower room. There is also a large communal lawn garden to the side of the property with gate giving direct access to the beach. This stunning residence is a rare find to the market and is coming available for long term let.
